PERSONAL STATEMENT

Handling the medical insurance claim following my daughter's heart transplant surgery has given me a tremendous amount of knowledge and understanding of how insurance claims work and how critical it is to have an advocate. The endless nitpicking and refusal of coverage by the insurance company was draining and consumed my attention at a time when my family needed me most. So, connecting with and working for Adjusters International, where I get to advocate for homeowners daily, appealed to me on a personal level.

I remember the crushing emotions that go along with the constant battle with insurance companies while trying to pick up the pieces. Being the person that can relieve people of the burden of dealing with their insurance company so they can focus on themselves and their family is the most enjoyable challenge for me.

WHAT MY CLIENTS HAVE TO SAY

"Words cannot express how grateful we are that Dave Droubay was there while the ashes were still smoldering and that he wouldn't give up on trying to help us, for weeks after I tried to brush him off... Your experience and knowledge are invaluable. Your compassion, consideration, and attention to detail, have turned what could have been a horrible, charred time in our life, into what could be the best thing that ever happened to us... We are so grateful that you found us, and picked us up."

"Dave suggested that the insurance company would under-estimate the loss, as they did by over 50%. Having you direct the contractors as to what was necessary to repair the building, retaining an engineer on our behalf to identify the problems in reconstruction and providing a detailed breakdown of all the errors in the insurance company's expert's scope of repairs, resulted in a recovery of over twice what was initially offered... Without you, we would not have recovered as much as we did... We can only suggest to others that are faced with a major insurance claim, that they retain Adjusters International; it will be the best decision they ever made."

QUICK FACTS

As a public adjuster, my services are rendered to help expedite claims, obtain better settlements, and help restore and reestablish homes by negotiating directly with the insurance company's adjuster so that my clients can focus on other priorities (family, work, friends, etc.) instead of spending precious time and energy doing it themselves.
